ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES

Please read the comprehensive document "ACCREDITATION PROCEDURES FOR 2009 FIA WORLD RALLY CHAMPIONSHIP", which is available in the Media section of www.rallyaustralia.com.

Follow all guidelines carefully and ensure all information required is supplied with your accreditation application and sent to the appropriate address.

The following information must be supplied with each application for Australian print journalist, national news agency or photographer accreditation (applicants in other categories should refer to specific guidelines with their appropriate forms) –

- (1) A fully-completed Accreditation Form.
- (2) A formal request for accreditation, written on the publication's official letterhead, signed by a Director of the publication or the Editor. Requests signed by clerical staff will not be accepted.
- (3) Written confirmation of the publication's frequency and circulation or readership figures.
- (4) A current and original copy of the publication.
- (5) Applications from freelance journalists and photographers must be accompanied by copies of their work published during the past 12 months, specifying the names of the newspapers/magazines in which it has been published.
- (6) One passport-size colour photograph of applicant.

Applications must be submitted by post. Those which are late, incomplete or submitted by fax may not be considered.

Up to three representatives per organisation will be considered for accreditation by the FIA. A separate application form must be completed for each person. Media organisations must have a circulation size and quality that satisfies the FIA.

PLEASE NOTE: Australian photographer accreditation is limited in number by the FIA and priority will be given to national publications and agencies based on circulation and frequency.

Advertising, PR, marketing or sponsor representatives are not eligible for media accreditation.

Media representatives unable to attend Repco Rally Australia, or who do not qualify for accreditation, will be able to use news reports and photographs available free from the event website or distributed by email from the Media Centre.
